

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We have a phone in our home for our use - not to be bothered constantly by telemarketers. It is an interruption to our family life. Please make it possible for us to enjoy the time we spend at home with our families and not be hassled by unwanted phone calls.

Thank you!